

ONLINE WORKSHOP ON CLIMATE ADAPTION

Do you want to know how public problem owners are addressing the challenges climate change is posing to them?

Attend this workshop to hear more about how public-private partnerships for innovation can solve this!

[CLICK HERE
TO SIGN UP!](#)

WHAT IS NEPTUN?

NEPTUN is an Interreg funded project who connects small and medium sized enterprises and municipalities across the Danish-German border.

The aim of the projects is to unleash the innovation and growth potential within the water, wastewater and climate adaptation sector.

At the same time NEPTUN seeks to build a bridge between the supply and demand site within new innovative water technologies.

Interreg
Deutschland - Danmark

PROGRAM

16TH OF AUGUST

10.00 - 13.00

10.00 - 10.05 WELCOME

10.05 - 10.30 What is NEPTUN?

10.30 - 11.05 Keynote 1: What does the future hold for Schleswig-Holstein and the Region of Southern Denmark in regards to climate changes? By Ramon Hiemcke, Head of the hydrological department, LLUR-SH

11.05 - 11.20 Break

11.20 - 11.55 Keynote 2: Practical approach to climate mitigation, by Jette Vindum, Climate Coordinator, Vejle Municipality

11.55 - 12.00 Break

12.00 - 12.40 Breakout sessions* - examples of public-private corporations aiming to solve technical challenges

12.40 - 12.55 Short summary of the breakout sessions

12.55 - 13.00 Wrap up and further NEPTUN workshops

*Note the breakout sessions are in native languages (Danish/ German)

Interreg
Deutschland - Danmark

